BRANDRETH'S PILLS.
The remarkable cures which have been effected by Brandreth's Pills, have astonished the medical faculty many of whom have conceded that they are the greatest blessing that ever was given to the world.
The reason these celebrated Pills have such a universally good effect is because their action harmonizes with the human body.
Purge out the old leaven, that ye may become a new lump, is the language of Holy Writ, a figure applied spiritually it is true, but how could it have any application unless confirmed by practical experience in the body of matter. The foundation upon which this figure of scripture rests is as immovable as the laws which govern the tides, or that occasion the thunder of Heaven.
"The Condition."
The condition upon which God has given health to man is a constant care to keep his stomach and bowels free from all morbid or unhealthy accumulations. The means to effect this must be those remedies which cleanse the system and purify the blood.
Good health, medicine is only a species of food; when the animal, whose habits we have the means of observing, are sick, they wander through the fields, and make selections of those herbs which open their bowels and purify their fluids, which immediately restore their health.
When a dose of Brandreth's Pills are taken, they are digested, and pass to every part of the system, but they leave the body when they have effected the intended purpose, and health and vigor are by them insured.
Mineral medicines may enter the system; but they with difficulty get out again, and they always occasion pain and misery while they remain in the body.
Brandreth's Pills are as innocent as a piece of bread, and are evacuated with the disease for which they are taken.
From the time we are born to the time we cease to breathe, our bodies are constantly wasting, and as constantly building up. The action of the atmosphere wears or wastes them. The food we eat, the digestive organs convert into blood, which renews or builds up by its circulating power. Thus the human body is healthy when the blood circulates freely, and when any thing prevents its free course throughout the veins, disease commences.
Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Fevers, Inflammations, are all owing to this, and all the troubles attending them could always be prevented by the timely use of Brandreth's Pills, as their very action at once tends to clear the circulation of all impediment, and remove every cause or occasion of impurity from the blood. There are thousands—nay, millions—at this moment, in this country, and all others, whom we may consider as half dead.—They may be said to carry their death in their bowels and circulation. This is no imaginary circumstance. I wish it were. The thousand whom we meet every where with cadaverous looks, yellow skins and green eyes, speak in a language not to be mistaken, of the state of their stomach and bowels, and the consequent condition of their blood. The body is thus, while in life, reduced to the condition of a corpse; and the reason why some bodies are soon in a putrid condition after death is more from the quantity of impure humors contained in them at the time they expire, than from any other cause. And who is there that will not allow that if Brandreth's Pills had been employed; so as to have removed those impure humors, that life might not have been saved? Whenever will but give this subject a very little consideration, will at once perceive the perfect identity between the putrid humors of the body before death, and the humors which occasion the peculiar odor of a dead body.
The counterfeit's death blow.
The public will please observe that no Brandreth Pills are genuine unless the box has three labels upon it, each containing a fac-simile of my hand writing—B. Brandreth. The labels are engraved on steel, beautifully designed, and done at an expense of several thousand dollars. Remember the top, the side, and the bottom.
Entered according to act of Congress in the year 1841, by Benjamin Brandreth, in the Clerk's office in the District Court of the Southern District of New York.
Each agent who sells the TRUE Brandreth Pills, has an ENGRAVED CERTIFICATE of Agency, RE-NEWED every twelve months, and has entered into bonds of $500 to sell none other Pills than those received from Dr. B. or his special General agent. MARK the certificate is ALL engraved except the Doctor's name, which is in his own hand writing. OBSERVE on each certificate there is an exact copy of the THREE LABELS on each box engraved thereon. PURCHASER, see that the engraving of the labels on the certificate correspond with those on the box.
The following are Dr. Benjamin Brandreth's Agents, for the sale of his vegetable Pills, in the counties of Tuscarawas, Carroll, and Holmes, who are supplied with the new labelled boxes.
John P. Chapin, New Philadelphia.
Philip P. Laffor, Sandville.

NEW LABELS FOR THE BRANDRETH PILLS BOXES.
These labels are of the most costly, and at the same time most ingenious style. The top label has over ninety thousand lines upon it which is made to represent the most minute net work. The lower part of the box is very prettily designed, and contains an innumerable number of wavy lines. And these words—"see that labels on this box agree with those on the certificate; no others are genuine." The side of the box is beautifully engraved, and contains the following caution, no Brandreth Pills are genuine unless the box has three fac-simile signatures upon it. In a very handsome style. Entered according to act of Congress in the year 1841, by B. Brandreth, in the Clerk's office in the District Court of the Southern District of New York.

A NEW VOLUME.
JANUARY, 1842.
GRAHAM'S LADY'S AND GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE.

EDITED BY
GEORGE R. GRAHAM, MRS. ANN STEPHENS, C. J. PETERSON, MRS. EMMA C. EMBURY, EDGAR A. FOE.
Miss E. LESLIE, THOMAS S. FAY, GEORGE F. MORRIS.

Permanent and regular contributors will open a New Volume with the number for January, 1842, with an array of contributors of talent and fame, which no periodical in its country can boast or pretend to rival.
The Volume will be opened with a new and beautiful type, the finest white paper, and with the first of a new series of EMBEZZLEMENTS, illustrated by any which have appeared in any Magazine. The style of elegance, the beauty and finish of the "Contributions," and the extensive improvements which will be made in its typographical appearance, and above all the of its Literary department given it by the brilliant array of its contributors, whose articles will enrich the pages of each number, will give it a character above any other Magazine in the Union. The Magazine has become a standard in the hands of readers of all classes, and has led the way in everything really beautiful published in the Magazine of last year. The voice of the public press, while it places the work at the head of American Literature, is unanimous in the announcement, that no work ever started in the country has been so elegantly embellished, or has so rapidly increased. For the new volume the most extensive arrangements have been made, with the most distinguished artists in the country, for the purpose of elegant engravings of all sorts.
OUR BEAUTIFUL MEZZOTINT ENGRAVINGS.
It affords us much satisfaction to be able to state, that we have made arrangements with Mr. SARTAIN, the accomplished mezzotint engraver, whose plates have contributed so much to the beauty of the Magazine heretofore, by which we secure his splendid mezzotint engravings, and thus we have secured this kind of art have them without permission from us. This we take to be a good move, and although the preference is purchased by us at a very heavy expense, we are confident that nothing can be got up to equal them in beauty or to compete with them in popularity. The engraving is permanent, and is confined to magazine work alone.
In addition to those we have secured the services of another talented mezzotint engraver, H. S. BULL, Esq. of New York, that there may be no disappointment as to number or regularity. These will be equal to anything published, so that we are able confidently to promise a mezzotint in every number.
These beautiful engravings will therefore form a feature of Graham's Magazine, in every number, so that we shall be able to distance anything like competition on this point. These will be the most expensive that we can get up for us for a number of large circulation, in consequence of the great price of printing—being more than double that of line engravings—and the necessity of reduplicating the plates; our edition already rendering it necessary that two or three plates of the same subject must be prepared for every number in which they are used. We now print an edition greater than that of any other Magazine, and we are confident that we shall be able to maintain the same rate increase we shall have in 1842, an edition of not less than 35,000 copies monthly. And shall soon have an edition unequalled in the history of magazine publishing.
Our Splendid Steel Engravings.
We have also entered into a distinct and permanent arrangement with Hildon, Wright, Hatch & Bullis, and with A. L. Dick, Esq. of New York, for a series of splendid engravings, to be set up in a style never before attempted, and which have been done in this country. The wide spread fame of these artists is a sufficient guarantee of the character of the work we shall receive from their hands. So that with such an organization, we may safely defy competition in the way of engravings, and show the world a pattern for others to follow in the way of liberal and judicious expenditure, and fix a new era in the history of magazine publishing. It is the opinion of the most judicious American artists to presume that the work out plates of English Artists are to compete with, or be preferred, to the beautiful creations of their genius, taste, and skill.
ELEGANT EMBOSSED WORK.
An agreement has also been made with that meritorious and accomplished artist, P. Quare, Esq. for a full supply of tasteful Embossed, Lace-Works, Birds, Flowers, and Landscapes, colored in the most finished and Elegant Style. This will form an expensive, but popular and attractive feature in the work, and with the variety which will be thus introduced will always be novel and pleasing.
STERLING CRITICISMS.
The critical department shall still form a distinctive character of the work, and is under the control of a gentleman of taste and ability, who will receive and reply to all communications second to none for sympathy and honest freedom in independence. The review of Books may therefore be expected to be candid and entirely free from the lame puffing which marks the bookseller's luck; but shall be thoroughly impartial and severely just.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.
This interesting feature of the Magazine shall still be preserved as important to young sportsmen, and in fact to all young and old; who delight in the sports of the rod and gun. Articles in this department shall be from acknowledged pens and of the very best authority.
The latest terms.
The proprietor being more desirous of publishing the handomest and best than the cheapest work in the Union, while at the same time he is anxious to bring it within the reach of all, offers the following as the lowest possible terms at which he can afford to sell the work for 1842.

The publisher of the Cultivator has the pleasure of presenting to the friends of Agriculture in the United States, the prospectus of a new volume, (the 5th commencing January 1, 1842,) of that periodical. This paper is now so well known every part of the country, as to render a recapitulation of its objects and its contents, generally unnecessary. The range and variety of its articles—its list of contributors embracing the most distinguished agriculturists in every section of the Union; unrivalled in numbers as well as scientific and practical skill;—the superiority of its mechanical execution, and the unequalled number, rich variety and superior beauty of its illustrations, embracing the best and most valuable of 500 ENGRAVINGS, representing the improved breeds of Cattle, Horses, sheep, Swine, Buildings, Improvements, &c., and on every subject connected with agriculture, have contributed to render it a favorite with all classes interested in the cultivation of the soil, and given it a circulation hitherto unknown to the agricultural periodicals of the country—amounting to about twenty two thousand.
Grateful for the favorable consideration the work has received, and the extensive patronage awarded, the publisher would state that no efforts or expense will be spared to give new and increased interest to the volume for 1842. It is intended to devote a large portion of the work (at least one page monthly) to the subject of GARDENING and the ORCHARD; and to enlarge the departments devoted to DOMESTIC and RURAL ECONOMY, and to the treasures of Antiquity, so as to render them as useful as possible to all classes of our citizens. To accomplish this arrangements have been made as will place within our reach all European publications and periodicals important in agricultural and veterinary matters, and they will be made available in such a manner, as in every respect to render the Cultivator worthy the patronage it has received and merits it all about considered, the CHEAPEST and MOST AMUSEMENTAL PAPER published in the United States.

Prospectus of THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S BOOK.
OR MAGAZINE OF USEFUL AND ENTERTAINING KNOWLEDGE.
Illustrated with splendid Mezzotint engravings by Sartain and Bullis. Line engravings in the first style of art by Dick, Cheney, &c. And numerous wood cuts by the most distinguished Artists.
There are many pious publications, yet one more is wanted. The friends of general Education—the advocates of the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge—have long desired to see the commencement of a monthly Magazine devoted to the instruction and entertainment of young persons of both sexes; conducted with a sole view to their improvement in literature, science, and the conduct of life, written not in the colloquial language which is addressed to very young children, but with attention to the style as shall render it worthy the notice of those who are acquiring the art of Composition or forming their literary taste; and filled with such various, original and valuable matter as shall render the volumes, when bound up; worthy a place in the Family or School Library.
It is the purpose of the proprietor of THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S BOOK to furnish such a Magazine. He has provided ample means for the accommodation of his object; and he pledges himself to the friends of liberal and judicious education throughout the United States that he will produce a work which shall be in every respect worthy of their attention and patronage.
One of the leading objects of the work will be to point out and illustrate by practical examples the proper methods of self-instruction. In the various departments of Literature and Art, to suggest appropriate departments of study and inquiry; to prescribe courses of reading; and to indicate the progress which may be made in the Sciences, so far as the limits of the work will allow.
The forms into which the different branches of instruction and entertainment will be thrown, will be regulated by the particular object in view at the time, and the class of readers addressed.
Essays, Narratives, Anecdotes, Tales, Historical reminiscences, and Sketches, Originals, Descriptive articles in Geography, Geology, Natural History, Antiquities and Travels, Biographical Notices and Poems, will all in turn become the vehicles of intellectual development and entertainment. The aid of the arts of printing and engraving will be invoked, and every subject susceptible of graphic illustration will be accompanied by well executed pictures.
Arrangements have been made for receiving, and the publisher is in the actual receipt of periodical publications of a similar design with that of THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S BOOK, from France, Germany, and other parts of the Continent of Europe. From these publications, and from the choicest parts of foreign education literature in its various departments, translations will be made of such articles as will serve to promote the main design of the work—to instruct and entertain the American youth. The preservation, however, of a truly national spirit; the inculcation of the duties which every American scholar owes to his country, and the exhibition of the capabilities of our early history, our traditions, our customs and usages, or supplying all the materials of a copious and brilliant literature, will be constant objects of attention, and will form frequent topics of discussion, example and illustration.
In order to insure the competent execution of each department of the work, the aid of experienced writers, already favorably known to the public has been secured, and the editorial care of the whole is committed to JOHN FROST, A. M. Professor of Belles Lettres in the high School of Philadelphia, whose reputation as a practical teacher, and a writer in the departments of education and polite literature will form a sufficient guarantee, not only for the elegant and tasteful execution of the work, so far as language, style, and embellishments are concerned, but for its elevated moral and intellectual character, and for its favorable direction towards the improvement of the youthful readers in science, literature and the conduct of life.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S BOOK.
Will be published in MONTHLY NUMBERS, each to contain 32 pages, embellished with numerous engravings, and neatly done up in an ornamental cover. It will be printed on white paper of the finest quality, from a new and elegant type cast expressly for it. The form will be such as to make the volumes when completed a handsome addition to the shelves of the library. The first number was issued on the first day of September, 1841.

Publisher of the Cultivator.

A NEW MAGAZINE.
THE LADY'S WORLD OF FASHION.
A MAGAZINE OF CHOICE AND ENTERTAINING LITERATURE.

The first number of a new Monthly Magazine with the above title embellished with the earliest fashions from Paris and London, elegant steel and mezzotint engravings, Lace Work, Embroidery, Music, &c. was issued for January 1842. The work will be devoted exclusively to the Ladies, and will be issued in a style never before attempted in this country. It will contain articles from the most popular and pleasing writers of the day, of every variety of subject, but the work will be the main devoted to the cultivation of the female virtues. Hence most of the stories will be of a practical, domestic character, from the pens of our best female writers, while the earliest fashions in all their varieties shall be correctly given—so as to make the work welcome at every fire side, in the halls of the fashionable and the easy; in the house of the virtuous matron, whose aim is to amuse and instruct her children, as well as in the store and sewing room of the mantua maker and milliner.
Elegant Fashion Plates.
The prominent design of the Magazine will be to furnish in elegant an attractive style, the earliest, most correct, and full report in advance of all the other Magazines, and prior to the issuing of them here, of the Monthly Fashions, direct from Paris and London. The advantages of this to every lady, who makes taste in dress the least matter of life, will be apparent; and to the professional dress maker and milliner of the United States, the enterprise will be of incalculable advantage. It is proposed to issue every month a number and variety of costume, which will put to the blush every thing in the way of monthly reports of the Fashions heretofore attempted.
FINE STEEL ENGRAVINGS.
In order to render the Magazine in the highest degree, and to make it a perfect reader's companion, and an ornament to the entire table, as well as circulating in its literature, and useful in the style of the fashion plates; it is proposed to issue the most elegant Steel and Mezzotint engravings, from the first artists in the country, illustrated by choice and entertaining stories of domestic life. To vary the style of illustrations, occasionally Lace Patterns and Embroidery, set out in unsurpassed beauty and truth, by that excellent artist E. Quare, Esq. will also be given; and to leave nothing undone, at times will be given, the most popular and elegant music of the day, some melodious, Marzettes, &c.
THE TYPOGRAPHY.
The work will be printed on clear and beautiful type, on a page larger than any of the present three dollar Magazines with fine margin, and strong white paper, and will contain as much matter as can be compressed into thirty-two large octavo pages.
TIME OF DELIVERY.
The Magazine will be issued on or before the 15th of the month preceding the month for which it will be published or dated, or about the time the steamships which sail from New York on the first day of the month usually arrive. Thus the work will be in the hands of every subscriber with the most correct fashions before they can be got out here, and anticipating all other Magazines at least six weeks.

THE TERMS.
To bring the work within the reach of all, it will be issued at two dollars per annum invariably in advance, post paid. The cheapness of the work will at once be appreciated when we state that the London World of Fashion retails in this country at $10 per annum, and the Lady's World of Fashion will include every variety in the same style of excellence.
TO CLUBS.

PROPOSALS
For publishing in the town of Canton, Ohio, a weekly Newspaper to be entitled
THE WASHINGTONIAN.
The undersigned would respectfully announce to the public that he is about to commence the publication of a temperance newspaper to be entitled THE WASHINGTONIAN. In projecting a newspaper of this character, he has taken into mature consideration the difficulties with which the vocation of an editor is beset—the vastness and perplexities almost invariably attendant upon the arduous duties of the conductor of a public journal, be it devoted to what cause it may; but from the encouragement and liberality extended to him by the friends of temperance in Canton, he is induced to embark in the undertaking, and with the utmost of his humble abilities to aid in the glorious struggle, which is now progressing with such rapid strides through the length and breadth of our land—a reformation which has shed its benign influence over the moral and social condition of all classes of men, from the millionaire in his palace to the humble untutored laborer in his rude hovel. The undersigned having experienced in his own person the detestable and soul destroying effects of intemperance, the misery and degradation of a self-expatriated wanderer, and who has partaken largely at the fountains of the deadly Lethal, now comes before a generous and philanthropic people a reformed and regenerated man. However humiliating such a declaration may appear, it is but the earnest of the thousands of similar cases wherein the unwearied efforts of the Washingtonians have been productive of the most lasting and salutary good. And it is to be hoped by every well wisher of his country that this work—a work which we most sincerely believe to be one of the noblest that ever enlisted the best energies of man will not be abandoned by those who have battled so valiantly against the hydra monster, intemperance, until not a vestige remain of the miscreant and wretched creature caused by its pestiferous breath, which, like the dread simoon of the desert, carries death and destruction before it. The subject is not yet exhausted, nor will it be, while panders are to be found to minister to the depraved and vitiated appetites of men.—Hence it becomes every true patriot, every Christian, and every individual true to himself and just to the posterity to persevere in the righteous cause, and never waver in well doing. The field of labor is still an extensive one, and the spirit of a Matthew, a Turner or a Howard can find ample materials with which to bring about the desired end—a total suspension of the vice of intemperance.

The following embraces the plan of the plan of the Washingtonian:
1. Temperance. In this department will be furnished original and selected articles, statistical, general and local information, relative to the progress of the cause, and the influence which it exerts upon the happiness of mankind, contrasted with the evils produced by the use of intoxicating drinks. 2. Tales—moral amusing and instructive. 3. Poetry. 4. Literature. 5. Science. 6. Miscellaneous. 7. Agriculture. 8. The news of the day, political and general, which department will be found a faithful chronicle of passing events, without dilating into partyism or favoring the regular views of any one.
Two thousand copies of a specimen number of the Washingtonian will be printed in a few days and sent to all parts of the country—to officers of temperance societies, ministers of the gospel, postmasters and others, for the purpose of giving them an opportunity of judging for themselves, and procuring and forwarding the names of such as may feel disposed to patronize the paper.
The second number will be published as soon as the requisite number of subscribers can be procured.
A. W. BAKER,
Canton, O., Feb. 12, 1842.

TERMS.
The Washingtonian will be published every Tuesday, upon good type and paper of a medium size, in a neat quarto form, of eight pages, convenient for binding, at the low price of one dollar per year, to be paid invariably in advance. Six copies will be sent for five dollars.
Letters post-paid, addressed to A. W. BAKER, will meet with prompt attention.
HORSE BILLS,
NEATLY PRINTED, ON GOOD PAPER, (AND ORNAMENTED WITH A NEW PLATE,) ON THE MOST REASONABLE TERMS.
